

its continued efforts to provide clients and families with comfort and support but also in its Intergenerational Program, a program designed to involve children from various local schools in the area, in activities at the center. Considering this, it is no wonder that Governor M. Jodi Rell has called Orchard House "a jewel of the Connecticut shoreline."

I am confident that I speak for all the citizens of Connecticut in expressing pride and gratitude for the Orchard House Adult Day Center as it celebrates its 25th anniversary. The executive director, Thomas Russell Romano, and his staff have committed themselves to providing much needed care and treatment for the people of Connecticut.●

TRIBUTE TO BRIGADIER GENERAL BENJAMIN J. SPRAGGINS

● Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, I wish to take this opportunity to recognize and say farewell to an outstanding Air Force officer, BG Benjamin J. Spraggins, upon his retirement from the Air Force after more than 34 years of service. Throughout his career, Brigadier General Spraggins has served with distinction, and it is my privilege to recognize his many accomplishments and commend him for his service to the Air Force, the Congress, and our grateful Nation.

Brigadier General Spraggins is a longtime resident of my home State and devoted public servant of Harrison County, MS. He enlisted in the U.S. Air Force on March 17, 1972. After over 6 years of successful enlisted service, reaching the grade of technical sergeant, Brigadier General Spraggins received his commission from the Academy of Military Science, McGhee Tyson, TN. Following graduation from Officer Candidate School, Brigadier General Spraggins completed aviation school at Mather Air Force Base, CA, and RF-4C training at Shaw, Air Force Base, SC. Brigadier General Spraggins was then stationed with the 187th Transport Ready Group at Dannelly Field, AL, flying the RF-4C fighter aircraft. While stationed in 187th, Brigadier General Spraggins served in many critical positions including instructor, scheduling officer and assistant chief of standards and evaluations. He was a weapon systems officer in the RF-4C from 1979-1983 and a weapons system instructor in the F-4D from 1983-1988 at the 187th Fighter Wing. Brigadier General Spraggins completed his military flying career with over 2,500 hours in the T-37, T-43, RF-4C, and F-4D aircraft.

On September 23, 1987, Brigadier General Spraggins was assigned to the Combat Readiness Training Center, Gulfport, MS. During his tenure at the training center, he served in various positions including range control officer, director of operations, operations group commander, and finally as commander of the Combat Readiness Training Center. As commander, Brigadier General Spraggins was responsible for operations and training of over 20,000 military personnel annually and provided oversight for a $75 million dollar budget.

Concurrently, Brigadier General Spraggins was sent to Andrews Air Force Base, DC, in 2002 to run the Crisis Action Team for the Air National Guard. In 2003, he also served as the interim commander of the 186th Air Refueling Wing where he was responsible for operations of KC-135 aircraft wing, with over 1,000 personnel and oversight of a $48 million dollar annual budget. He was the first member of the Mississippi Air National Guard to simultaneously command two major units, the Combat Readiness Training Center and the 186th Air Refueling Wing.

Brigadier General Spraggins was assigned to the Tennessee Air National Guard in November 2005 as the chief of staff. In this capacity he was responsible to the adjutant general for readiness of Tennessee's three flying wings and three mission support units. In addition to duties as chief of staff, Brigadier General Spraggins also served as the air deputy commander, joint forces Headquarters, Tennessee National Guard. Brigadier General Spraggins was also attached as the battle commander for Air Force North, Tyndall AFB, FL. In this capacity he was responsible for ensuring the air sovereignty and air defense of the continental United States.

During his long and distinguished career, Brigadier General Spraggins successfully completed Squadron Officer School, Air Command and Staff, and the Air War College with the Air University. His decorations and awards include Legion of Merit, Meritorious Service Medal, Air Force Commendation Medal, Mississippi Magnolia Cross, Tennessee Meritorious Service Medal, Combat Readiness Medal, Air Reserve Forces Meritorious Service Medal, National Defense Service Medal, Air Force Longevity Service Medal, Armed Forces Reserve Medal and the Air Force Training Ribbon.

Upon the retirement of Brigadier General Spraggins after 34 years of dedicated service, I offer my congratulations to him and his wife Judy. Brigadier General Spraggins is a credit to both the Air Force and the United States of America. I know that I speak for all my colleagues in expressing heartfelt appreciation to him. I wish Brigadier General Spraggins blue skies and safe landings and congratulate him on completion of an outstanding and successful career.●

TRIBUTE TO BRIGADIER GENERAL DAVID K. (BOB) EDMONDS

● Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, today I wish to recognize an outstanding officer upon his retirement from the U.S. Air Force. Brigadier General David K. "Bob" Edmonds will retire on February 1, 2007, after almost 28 years of service. His successes and accomplishments have been significant and many. He has been recognized by his superiors and subordinates alike for his ability to motivate and lead teams and mentor future leaders. Today, it is my pleasure to recognize some of General Edmonds' many accomplishments and commend his service to the Air Force, the Congress, and our grateful Nation.

Brigadier General Edmonds was born and raised in Charlotte, NC. He graduated from the U.S. Air Force Academy in 1979 as a distinguished graduate and the top cadet in the civil engineering major. He was selected for a Guggenheim Fellowship at Columbia University and graduated in May 1980 with a master of science degree in civil engineering. He began his Active Duty career at Columbus Air Force Base, Mississippi, where he completed undergraduate pilot training as a distinguished graduate and was selected to fly the F-15 Eagle. He has served in numerous flying positions throughout his career, both as an instructor pilot and a commander, and led 45 combat missions with the 53rd Tactical Fighter Squadron during Operation Desert Storm. He is a command pilot with over 2500 flight hours and 300 combat hours.

General Edmonds' last assignment was deputy director for operations, National Military Command Center, the Joint Staff, Pentagon, where he led a team that performed initial analysis of developing military and political situations worldwide for the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Secretary of Defense, and President of the United States. He also performed nuclear watch in conjunction with the North American Aerospace Defense Command and U.S. Strategic Command and was ready to advise the President on available courses of action and transmit the President's nuclear decisions.

We especially remember General Edmonds' his service to the Congress as the Deputy Director for Air Force Legislative Liaison from 2003 to 2004 and as the Chief of Air Force Senate Liaison from 2001 to 2003. During these tours of duty, he was responsible for articulating Air Force priorities and programs to members and their staffs and responding to congressional inquiries regarding a broad range of issues.

From 1999 to 2001, General Edmonds was the 16th commander of the 131st Fighter Wing, St. Louis, MO, where he uniquely served as an Active Duty officer commanding an Air National Guard Wing. He had great success leading the Wing to achieve and maintain air superiority with the F-15 Eagle aircraft and, accordingly, was awarded the 2001 Executive of the Year for the St. Louis metropolitan region. Prior to assuming this command, he was the chief, Joint Requirements Division in the Directorate of Force Structure, Resources, and Assessments, J-8, Joint Staff, at the Pentagon. In June 1997, he graduated from the National War College as a Distinguished Graduate. From 1995 to
